FLOOR DEBATE

April 2, 2002 LB 1085, 1211
 LR 382, 383

right word. The more...more input than anybody else, into the design and the parameters of the system. Now, I do understand your question, when it comes down to decision making time, how much power does the state have, and I think it's less than the other entities that are around the state. And the way that's been discussed, it's anticipated that the bulk of the money will be put in by those entities, other than the state and therefore...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time.

SENATOR BROMM: ...they should have a considerable amount of input.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Kristensen, for a point.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Mr. President, I would move that we recess until 1:30 p.m., after the Clerk's had an opportunity to read any items into the record, please.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Items for the record, please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Thank you, Mr. President. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Two study resolutions: LR 382, LR 383, both will be referred to the board. Senator Vrtiska, an amendment to LB 1085. That's all that I have, Mr. President. (Legislative Journal pages 1288-1290.)

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you. And the motion before the body is to recess until 1:30. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are recessed.
